

PRIVATE ACTING STUDIO

Find your voice. Make bold choices. Tell great stories.

Individualized acting training and audition preparation for performers ages 9-18.

At DG Detroit, we believe every young performer deserves a space to explore, take creative risks and discover what makes them unique onstage. Our Private Acting Studio offers focused, one-on-one training designed around each performer's goals, whether they're just beginning, continuing their training, or preparing for an upcoming audition.

We are open to all. Our studio is a welcoming and inclusive creative space for young performers of every gender identity, background and level of experience.

No two performers are exactly alike. Their training shouldn't be either.

PRIVATE ACTING LESSONS

More than learning lines. Let's build an actor.

Ongoing Private Acting Lessons give young performers the opportunity to develop their craft outside of the pressure of preparing for a particular production. Each student's training is shaped around their age, experience, goals and areas for growth.

Lessons may include acting fundamentals and technique; character development; scene and monologue work; script analysis; objectives, intentions and creative choices; improvisation; cold reading; audition technique; confidence and stage presence; and individualized performance goals.
